Dispute with the European Commission

On April 18, 2013, the European Court of Justice has set aside the judgment of the European General Court ordering the European Commission to pay SYSTRAN a lump-sum amount of €12 million as compensation for the material damage sustained by it.

The European Court of Justice has declared that “the General Court should have declined jurisdiction and invited the parties to refer to the competent national courts, designated by the various contracts concerning the SYSTRAN machine translation system, concluded by SYSTRAN and the Commission” (Press release dated April 18, 2013 from the Court of Justice of the European Union).

Furthermore, the European Court of Justice has given final judgment on the dispute and has declared and judged:

- 1) The judgement of the European General Court dated December 16, 2010 in the case T-19/07 (SYSTRAN S.A. and SYSTRAN Luxembourg / Commission) is annulled.
- 2) The action for damages of SYSTRAN SA and SYSTRAN Luxembourg is dismissed.
- 3) SYSTRAN S.A. and SYSTRAN Luxembourg will have to pay the cost incurred by the European Commission before the European Court of Justice and also before the European General Court.

SYSTRAN will reimburse 12 million Euros to the European Commission. This amount was kept by the company and this refund will not endanger the company.
